Parewell.

With this issue, I step down and out of the Car family, D. M. Dunn hereafter being editor and publisher. We were the attending purse at the Cars birth, and have tenderly cared for it as JAS, AULD & CO... best we could under the circumstances.

We thank the good people of Thomas county for their liberal support, and hope all may live to see Thomas county a garden of Eden, (minus the serpent) and own all the land adjoining their present homesteads.

D. M. Dunn, now sole propri etor is well known to the most of our readers, is an experienced journalist, and knows how to stroke the Car in the right way. We bespeak for him a continuation of the past liberal patron age, feeling certain that he will For Land make the Car a necessary mous er in every Thomas County household.

Respectfully. E P. WORCESTER.

A party of B. & M. surveyors went southwest Monday. Oberlin Herald.

The work of grading on the B. & M. extension to Oberlin has commenced in earnest. A large force is at work in the vicinity of Altory, twelve miles east of here. and large forces, we understand, are employed at Norton, Long Island and Republican City. It is safe to predict that the cars will pull into Oberlin this fall. -Oberlin Herald.

Complaint having been entered at this office by R. M. Morrison against lather H. Silvey, for failure to comply with law as to time, the second of the complete of the good town. The surrounding country being settled by a class of energetic and thritty people who are here, knowing the hard ships of frontier life and determined to wait for the better time which is sure to come. Here we found many Smith county people who seem satisfied. Knowing their staying qualities we feel justified in saying that it will take more than tritles to drive them from that country. A livey paper called the Thomas (County) Car, is published at this place, by Dunn & Worcester, the fatter having been engaged in the newspaper business in Jewell county and having many friends in this county. To the forts of these gentlemen, ten seres of said land and has failed to ten acres of said and and has failed to plant to trees, seeds or cuttings five acres and many kittens which they are sending over the country, is thomas Chonty indebted for the amount of capital and energy it has already received as well as Chott & March & Land & Land
